

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Las Vegas, NV. – August 1, 2018 – Stixis today announced that John Martino has been appointed Chief Operating Officer, a new position within Stixis and was involved as an executive consultant for Stixis since March 2018. Mr. Martino previously held leadership positions with Barclays, HSBC and technology startups dating back to the early 1990's.

"John is a seasoned and trusted leader who consistently delivers results. He is uniquely qualified to drive strategic prioritization and accountability within Stixis, with a laser-focus on operational excellence," said Rayudu Dhananjaya, chairman and CEO, Stixis. "I have tremendous confidence in John's ability to align Stixis world-class innovation engine with industry-leading operational practices to build a service and innovation company unlike any other.

Effective immediately, Mr. Martino will assume responsibility for marketing, operations and services organizations. Mr. Martino will be responsible for the alignment and prioritization of company initiatives and ensuring operational excellence across the company.

Prior to this appointment, Mr. Martino was responsible for leading the workforce strategies at Barclays US. In that role, his team of employees was comprised of subject matter experts, leaders, and analysts who help Barclays operational teams achieve best in class service results, lower expenses and efficiency objectives. Mr. Martino started his career in the San Francisco Bay Area working for Adobe Systems in 1992 followed by multiple startups with increasing responsibilities along the way.

Mr. Martino has held a number of board positions, the latest with the Las Vegas Global Economic Alliance Advisory Board.
